About the AuthorCherril Doty is an artist, writer, and Director of the Sawdust Art Festival's Studio Art Classes in Laguna Beach, California. While she holds a masters degree in counseling psychology, the need to create has called, and Cherril followed her muse to try new forms and search possibilities. Mixed media represents the culmination of the search and is the process by which to achieve still more through teaching and experimentation. Visit www.cherrildoty.com to learn more. Marsh Scott is a multi-media artist from Dana Point, California. Embracing media of all kinds and in all sizes from jewelry to large public art installations, Marsh especially loves to create art rich with texture, layers and color. Visit www.marshscott.com to learn more. Heather Greenwood is a self-taught mixed media artist, who loves to be creative in everything she does. She is known for adding mixed media flair to her memory keeping scrapbook albums, planners, DIY projects and art journals. She teaches and inspires projects and techniques on her blog, www.heathergreenwooddesigns.com. Monica Moody is a Dallas-based artist. Known for her vibrant alcohol ink paintings, she also enjoys mixed media, illustration, relief printmaking, pyrography, and watercolor painting. Learn more at www.monicamoodys.com.
