before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 101 Top Techniques for Artists: Step-by-step art projects from over a hundred international artists:

8 of 8 people found the following review helpful. worse than uselessBy ViciI don't like to leave a negative review, but feel a responsibility in this case.Dotted with minuscule illustrations, the book consists of overblown titles for technique that are worse than useless. For example: "Using Objects as Templates for Portraiture" consisted of a whole page on how to use a mushroom and a plant pot as the basis for drawing the human face.The many products that each contributing "artist" used for every little thing were prominently listed by brand name on each new page. Checking out the web site of the Society of All Artists, one learns that members enjoy great discounts on over 16,000 top quality, brand name, art products supplies and earn loyalty points on all purchases over £15. Enough said.

101 Top Techniques for Artists is a colourful compendium packed full of practical tips and techniques by 101 of today's most popular leading artists. Each technique is presented in clear, simple step-by-step instructions that describe how to complete the project yourself, including a full list of materials and detailed images to guide you along the way. Divided into seven chapters that cover watercolours, acrylics, oils, pastels, drawing and mixed media, this handy book is bursting with some of the most popular styles and subjects, designed to showcase the very best of artistic abilities available to help develop your own creative streak. All contributors featured in this book are professional artists belonging to the SAA, who together with a global community of over 46,000 other members, make up the world's largest and friendliest art society. Whether you're a beginner, an improver or a professional, there's something new to learn for everyone in this comprehensive collection.

About the Author
The Society for All Artists (SAA) is for everyone with a love of painting, encouraging everyone, from complete novices and hesitant beginners to the legions of leisure painters and beyond. The SAA supplies inspiration, information, help and advice on a whole host of practical painting issues. The SAA is the most far-reaching society of its kind in the world, with an ever growing 'family' of enthusiastic and eager artists (over 46,000 members worldwide). Each year they hold the Artist of the Year competition, which is open to everyone with a passion for painting, irrespective of age, ability, medium or subject matter.
