The Gullah Guide was like reading "the other part of the story untoldBy Carmencita StewartA Gullah Guide to Charleston .... was helpful to me when I toured Charleston with my reading group- The Last Page. As a means to celebrate six ladies rode the train from Virginia to Charleston, SC after reading the book, "Girl on the Train." I was able to follow the tour guide Mr. Brown as he pointed out the highlights of Charleston. Although the written Gullah language was challenging the English narrative was a benefit for me. The Gullah Guide was like reading "the other part of the story untold."0 of 0 people found the following review helpful.

Must read if you are thinking of visiting CharlestonBy R. CampbellThe book is great, but the tour was even better.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Excellent book explaining many of the must-see sights of Charleston ...By Amy CominExcellent book explaining many of the must-see sights of Charleston with an added bonus of explanations given in the Gullah language. Alphonso Brown is a fountain of information and he delivers it in a most delightful and interesting way!

Join Alphonso Brown, owner and operator of Gullah Tours, Inc., on three accessible walking tours and a bonus driving tour through the places, history and lore relevant to the rich and varied contributions of black Charlestonians. Visit Denmark Vesey's home, Catfish Row, the Old Slave Mart and the Market; learn about the sweetgrass basket makers, the Aiken-Rhett House slave quarters, black slave owners and blacksmith Philip Simmons. Brown's distinctive narration, combined with detailed maps and vibrant descriptions in native Gullah, make this a unique and enjoyable way to experience the Holy City.
