InnisWe enjoy the book very much, and the pictures especially bring back a lot of good memories for my son.5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. A phenomenally well researched book - Bo's intricate knowledge combined with his unwavering research results in a great book!By corydaveThe book starts with an amusing and poignant foreward from Mark Dibble, the Camp Cory Director for the past eight years. Then, Bo dives into the history of Cory with letters and photos from the early years (including a check from 1893), culminating in a painstakingly researched telling of Lt.

Lawrence Cory's final days. The book investigates the songs and stories of 90 years of Camp Cory history, and also includes 60 pages of chronological history from 1920 to present day. The book concludes modern songs and stories of Camp Cory. Well written, it is clear that Bo's passion as a historian and talent as a storyteller have found the perfect blend. It is a joy to read, and will leave the reader well informed. A must for any Camp Cory camper, family or staff, as well as for any history buff. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great Read! By Red Sox Guy This book is a great read. Summer Camp is so important in the development of children and this book describes how one of the oldest camps in the world developed into what it is. This book is a must for parents, kids and camp professionals.

Summertime memories of Camp Cory are awash in warm emotion. From the Reveille bugle at first light to Taps in the evening, those days were the absolute best. Skippering a K-boat on cool Keuka Lake. Silly songs and skits performed into the night. The boundless nature of genuine friendship. It is hard to explain exactly why that time is so special, how it changes lives forever. This wonderful mystery is revealed here by official Camp Cory historian Bo Shoemaker. So gather around the campfire to reminisce. Just be sure to watch out for the H Man!

About the Author Bo Shoemaker is from Brighton, New York, and obtained degrees from SUNY Geneseo (BA in history), Fordham University (MA in history) and Syracuse University College of Law (JD). He worked for eleven summers at Camp Cory as counselor, Waterfront coordinator, Maijgren Village head, leadership director, program director and eventually senior program director. He is currently the camp historian.
