Zachary Kingdon : A Host of Devils: The History and Context of the Making of Makonde Spirit Sculpture (Studies in Visual Culture) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A Host of Devils: The History and Context of the Making of Makonde Spirit Sculpture (Studies in Visual Culture):

A Host of Devils provides an in-depth account of the background, origin and development of the spirit figure sculptures which emerged during colonial times among the Makonde people of Mozambique. The creation of such works is shown to connect with a regional system of knowledge and practice, within which spirits function as a format for expression. The book describes the ways in which the sculpture emerged, as well as the author's experience of learning how to carve.

'This is a book that should be in every library devoted to African art.' - T.O. Beidelman, Anthropos
