Donald Richie : A Lateral View: Essays on Culture and Style in Contemporary Japan before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A Lateral View: Essays on Culture and Style in Contemporary Japan:

A masterfully written collection of short essays by the recognized Western expert on Japanese culture and film and the man Time magazine calls "the dean of art critics in Japan." Spanning more than thirty years, Richie interprets his adopted home's creative accomplishments during its rise to economic and cultural power.
