Ivan Balabanov, Karen Duet : Advanced Schutzhund (Howell reference books) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Advanced Schutzhund (Howell reference books):

By Too Many Books The book provides a good overview of Schutzhund as a dog sport, but I would not recommend this book as a handler's introduction to training. Worth having once you've done some training and are looking for ways to correct issues or problem areas. But then the title already says that it's advanced. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Brilliant - highly recommendedBy Tamarinda SchreuderThe authors are well known experts in their field. The book is clearly written and easy to understand. Their methods and techniques are well thought out and make sense. I have been using some of their methods for 'fixing problems' in my schutzhund dog and am seeing steady improvement. I wish I had taught some of the exercises using their techniques right from the start.I unreservedly recommend this book to anybody who is into dog training, the principles can be applied to most types of dog training.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Very good book!By Julio HernandezThis book is not intended for novice handlers, however it will bring to light many different aspects of Schutzhund as the novice develops.Excellent book that taps into different facets of advance sport dog training. Very good book with clear writing. I highly recommend this book.Zukak9.com

"Ivan's training comes from the heart, for the dog. He has certainly enhanced my view of training and has taught me many valuable, yet simple techniques to achieve the most from my dogs and myself." --Mary A. Allen, World Championship Competitor, USA Apprentice Judge, USA New England Regional Director"Ivan Balabanov is among the few top trainers in the country who truly understands dog behavior and drives. He is highly respected by the best Schutzhund competitors, trainers and coaches in the country." --Glenn Stephenson, United Schutzhund Clubs of America Judge, International competitorTraining methods for the top competitor. Advanced Schutzhund takes a problem-solving approach to Level III work that will help competitors bring their dogs to the highest level. Tracking, obedience and protection are dealt with individually, analyzing specific problems that crop up in each skill and offering step-by-step solutions. The approach uses operant conditioning techniques that steer clear of compulsion methods and build a dog's confidence, courage and problem-solving ability. You'll also find tips on how to compete at the National and World levels, including traveling with your dog.A Howell Dog Book of Distinction
