From Routledge : Architectural Conservation: Issues and Developments: A Special Issue of the Journal of Architectural Conservation before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Architectural Conservation: Issues and Developments: A Special Issue of the Journal of Architectural Conservation:

This authoritative book offers contributions from leading practitioners and scholars presenting an assessment of the current state of conservation in the UK. It raises concerns about the ambivalence within government towards heritage protection. It considers the need for a clear understanding of the value of architectural heritage; the importance of training; adequate funding for maintenance, and support at a local and community level. It also discusses the role of the amenity societies and provides a useful comparison of the national and regulation driven process operating in the UK with the US local and incentive led approach.

I want to see national recognition of the contribution that good conservation makes to our civilization. George Ferguson
