Love the stories, but I almost wish it had more recipes and less stories. I love the fact that he didn't edit out the blue language - by god I pay for it I wanna read it in his words, not from an editor eyes. Brings it to a personal level for me. It does give the reader a glimpse into how Sammy became a foodie, and how his culinary tastes have evolved over the years. Enjoyable read for the Sammy fan.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great adult read!By Arf WillThis is part cookbook and part fun read. Sammy's familiarity with food is very surprising, and the recipes are really well thought out and yummy. The musical trivia is a lot of fun, too! Note: this is NOT for minors - there are lots of F-bombs.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Cool recipes and love the narrative from Sammy!By KrisA fun cookbook with recipes I can actually get the ingredients in Ohio. We love the side stories from Sammy. This fan loved it

The only thing I'm allergic to is bad music and bad food! So what I'm telling you is that Sammy's cookbook is just what Dr. Feelgood ordered!! This book yoursquo;re holding has all the recipes for good food, good music, and one hell of a party!! (Tommy Lee)When a guy writes a hit song called 'Mas Tequila,' you know he can throw a serious party. And after touring all over the world for the last 30 years, my brutha Sammy Hagar has gained a serious appreciation for great food. (Guy Fieri)Everyone knows Sammy Hagar rocks, but let me tell you--he knows how to mix too, a great cocktail that is. (Rachel Ray)Sammy was the first celebrity to start a tequila business the entire industry had to take notice of Cabo Wabo. He grew it so big we had to buy our competition! (Luca Garavoglia, the owner of Grupo Campari)hellip;my favorite time with Sammy is usually some place where he is cooking and kicking back in a home kitchen environment. Like his lyrics and inimitably delightful 'sledge hammer wrapped in a mink stoler's voice, his cooking is nuanced, fun, well-conceived and above all super delicious.
