Titus Burckhardt : Art of Islam, Language and Meaning: Commemorative Edition (Sacred Art in Tradition)

before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Art of Islam, Language and Meaning: Commemorative Edition (Sacred Art in Tradition):

By Chris Morgan
What a pity such an outstanding book should be marred by so many errors. I was told that this edition would be removed from sale until the errors have been corrected. I found errors on almost every page of the text, mostly to do with spacing in the middle of words, and lack of spacing after commas and full stops. The book itself is superb.

By Phelod
I really like the book but the Kindle formatting was a mess. I had at least 4 major glitches that forced me to manually jump to a later page to move on. Otherwise, the material is great and the writing is clear. I may buy the print version so I can see the illustrations better. Great starting point for an overview of Islamic art. But my experience was ruined by bad formatting.

By Sweet Thing
Fast service from quality vendor. Book was in great condition-shipped fast. I was excited to receive the book. Good book for anyone's library.

Discover the beauty of Islam through Titus Burckhardt's masterpiece Art of Islam, presented in a revised, commemorative edition containing 285 new illustrations.

ldquo;[This is] the definitive work on Islamic art as far as the meaning and spiritual significance of this art are concerned.... Burckhardt brings together a lifetime of outward and inward experience to produce a peerless work, one in which Islamic art is at last revealed to be what it really is, namely the earthly crystallization of the spirit of the Islamic revelation as well as a reflection of the heavenly realities on earth.rdquo;Language NotesText: English, French (translation)About the AuthorThe author of more than 22 books, Burckhardt was an expert on Islam, Sufism, and Islamic arts crafts and worked for many years as a UNESCO expert helping to preserve the historic old city of Fez, Morocco.
