Kim W. Woods : Art Visual Culture 1100-1600: Medieval to Renaissance (Art Visual Culture 1 1) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Art Visual Culture 1100-1600: Medieval to Renaissance (Art Visual Culture 1 1):

An innovative exploration of art and visual culture. Through carefully chosen themes and topics rather than through a general survey, the volumes approach the process of looking at works of art in terms of their audiences, functions and cross-cultural contexts. While focused on painting, sculpture and architecture, it also explores a wide range of visual culture in a variety of media and methods. "1000-1600: Medieval to Renaissance" includes essays on key themes of Medieval and Renaissance art, including the theory and function of religious art and a generic analysis of art at court. Explorations cover key canonical artists such as Simone Martini and Botticelli and key monuments including St Denis and Westminster Abbey, as well as less familiar examples. The first of three text books, published by Tate in association with the Open University, which insight for students of Art History, Art Theory and Humanities.
