From Tate Publishing : Art Visual Culture 1600-1850: Academy to Avant-Garde (Art Visual Culture) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Art Visual Culture 1600-1850: Academy to Avant-Garde (Art Visual Culture):

An innovative exploration of art and visual culture. Through carefully chosen themes and topics rather than through a general survey, the volumes approach the process of looking at works of art in terms of their audiences, functions and cross-cultural contexts. While focused on painting, sculpture and architecture, it also explores a wide range of visual culture in a variety of media and methods. "1600-1850 Academy to Avant-Garde" interrogates labels used in standard histories of the art of this period (Baroque, Rococo, Neo-Classicism and Romanticism) and examines both established and recent art-historical methodologies, including formalism, iconology, spectatorship and reception, identity and difference. Key topics include Baroque Rome, Dutch Painting of the Golden Age, Georgian London, the Paris Salon, and the impact of the discovery of the South Pacific. The second of three text books, published by Tate in association with the Open University, which insight for students of Art History, Art Theory and Humanities.
