Very Helpul BookBy wil liamThis is a very helpful book for most anyone who is new to the process of auditioning for the world of professional theater written by an experienced casting director who is also an actress. There are several books out on this subject. This one was recommended to me by the casting director of a regional theater company. The first chapter, which covers the emotional baggage that actors bring to auditions was especially helpful to me. The following chapters give a good overview of the audition process, so you know what to expect, and much good advice about preparing material for presentation.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Theater veteran and acting teacher Joanna Merlin has written the definitive guide to auditioning for stage and screen, bringing to it a valuable dual perspective. She has spent her career on both sides of the auditioning process, both as an award-winning casting director who has worked with Harold Prince, Bernard Bertolucci, and James Ivory, and as an accomplished actor herself. In this highly informative and accessible book, Merlin provides everything the actor needs to achieve self-confidence and artistic honesty;from the most basic practical tips to an in-depth framework for preparing a part. Filled with advice from the most esteemed people in the business, such as James Lapine, Nora Ephron, and Stephen Sondheim, and charged with tremendous wisdom and compassion, this indispensable resource will arm the reader to face an actor's greatest challenge: getting the part.
