Wonderful essays that are so touching. If you have ever loved an animal, the following words of Suzanne Clothier (p.56) will have profound meaning for you: "There is a cycle of love and death that shapes the lives of those who choose to travel in the company of animals. It is a cycle unlike any other. To those who have never lived through its turnings or walked its rocky path, our willingness to give our hearts with full knowledge that they will be broken seems incomprehensible. Only we know how small a price we pay for what we receive; our grief, no matter how powerful it may be, is an insufficient measure of the joy we have been given." This book is a must for any dog lover. 19 of 19 people found the following review helpful. 82 years of love By dorothy twombly right now I have two senior doggies. they are both 14 years young. before these babies came to me .my four footed baby left me at 15.i still miss him.soon I will have to say goodbye again.I am 82 years old but when these babies leave me I will not go on alone.i will find a senior doggies who needs a home I will need him or her more. 7 of 7 people found the following review helpful. Our Faithful Friends By Barbara A. Welsh If you are a dog lover who has had the privilege of having their beloved dog around till old age, you will enjoy this book. Also, those who have taken in an old rescue dog will feel the same.

A charming, delightfully photographed tribute to the older dog, with essays and poetry. Gandhi once said, "The greatness of a nation and its moral progress can be judged by the way that its animals are treated." How people regard older animals is especially revealing. Beautiful Old Dogs is a heartfelt, emotional, passionate tribute to old dogs. It will inspire many readers to get involved in senior dog rescue and adoption, as it honors our senior best friends and explores their current state of care and custody in an informative appendix. This book features the exquisite photography of the late Garry Gross, a noted fashion photographer during the 60s, 70s and 80s who, after becoming a highly successful dog trainer in New York City, turned his camera lens towards dogs. Gross, along with Victoria Stilwell from Animal Planet's It's Me or the Dog, founded Dog Trainers of New York in 2002, and became devoted to highlighting the plight and value of senior dogs. "The older the better," Gross said. "Dogs with soul in their eyes." David Tabatsky has collected Gross's photographs here, and carefully curated an accompanying selection of moving, insightful, funny, and uplifting essays and short pieces by a range of writers, with contributions from Anna Quindlen, Ally Sheedy, Christopher Durang, Doris Day, Dean Koontz, Marlo Thomas, and many more.

ldquo;Garry Gross continues to live through this beautiful book, and the dream he had to celebrate the beauty and wisdom of senior dogs has now been realized.rdquo; ?Victoria Stilwell, celebrity dog trainer and behavior expert, author, TV host and creator of *It's Me or the Dog*About the AuthorDAVID TABATSKY is a writer, editor, teacher and performing artist.
