Byrge is able to mine great background stories from these producers. The interview with Clint Eastwood alone is worth reading the book. It reveals Clint as a regular guy, not some conceited film star. It is clear that these producers succeeded through a lot of hard work. This should be required reading at film schools across the country! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A Great Book on Filmmakers and Filmmaking By Customer A true treasure of insider perspectives. A must-read for movie fans!

We know what actors do. We know what writers do. But what does a movie producer do, other than arrange financing for films and accept Academy Awards? Featuring in-depth interviews with 14 top movie producers, including eight who have won Oscars for Best Picture, this book describes how they nurture a project from concept to casting to screen. They are entrepreneurs, essentially creating a new business every time they start work on a film. They possess an array of skills and talents and the resilience and the fortitude to not take "no" for an answer. The interviewees are Marc Abraham, Tony Bill, Albert Berger, Ron Yerxa, Clint Eastwood, Taylor Hackford, Mark Johnson, Arnold Kopelson, Alan Ladd, Jr., Michael London, Fred Roos, Paula Wagner, Jim Wilson and Janet Yang.
