Gurpreet Kaur Bhatti : Behzti (Dishonour) (Oberon Modern Plays) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Behzti (Dishonour) (Oberon Modern Plays):

‘You think it is pleasant watching a fat virgin become infertile? I want to be seen and noticed and invited by people. I want anything... that is not this.’
‘Past her prime, Min joyfully spends her life caring for her sick, foul-

mouthing mother, Balbir. Today, for the first time in years, they are off out. Mother and daughter head to the local Sikh Temple, but when Balbir encounters old friends, a past trauma rears its ugly head. Min and Balbir's illusions are about to be shattered as they become immersed in a world of desperate aspiration and dangerous deals. In a community where public honour is paramount, is there any room for the truth? Behzti was scheduled to open at The Door (Birmingham Rep) in December 2004 but was cancelled due to protests by some members of the local Sikh community.

About the Author Gurpreet Bhatti's Behsharam (Shameless), also published by Oberon, received critical acclaim, and she is currently under commission to Kali Theatre, Maya Productions and the Royal Exchange Theatre, Manchester (UK).
