Sherry Arent Cawley : Berrien County (Postcard History Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Berrien County (Postcard History Series):

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Remembering old Berrien County through postcardsBy Chriss LyonSherry Arent Cawley has created this wonderful pictorial tour of old Berrien County, Michigan through the popular medium of postcards. This is a refreshing look at some of the well documented sights along with a glimpse of some rare views. I recommend this book for anyone wanting to take a trip back in time or anyone wanting a brief history of the area.

As one of the earliest developed areas of the state of Michigan, Berrien County has a rich history that appeals to the locals as well as the tourists who still enjoy the many treasures to be found there. Author Sherry Arent Cawley has compiled over 200 vintage postcards chronicling the life and times of this historic area.The historic Benton Harbor

Fruit Market, Silver Beach, the mineral baths at the Whitecomb Hotel, and the House of David are all featured here in vivid postcards, some never before published, with accompanying captions. Images of Grand Beach, Niles, New Buffalo, Paw Paw Lake, and Berrien Springs offer readers a nostalgic glimpse into a Berrien County of yesteryear.

About the AuthorSherry Arent Cawley is the author of a previous Postcard History title, Around Walterboro, South Carolina. She is affiliated with the Berrien County Historical Association and has been an avid postcard collector for over 30 years. Her family has been in Berrien County since 1835.
